10.5 Interrogative pronouns / Ερωτηματικές αντώνυμίες

The interrogative pronouns are used in order to ask questions.

“τι” (what). This little word is indeclinable.

“ποιος, ποια, ποιο” (who, which). This interrogative pronoun follows the declensional pattern of adjectives ending in -ος, -α, -ο. The genitive singular and plural has two forms: ποιον and ποιανό, ποιόν and ποιανόν. Attention: Do not confuse “ποιο” with the adverb “πιο” which means “more”.

“τίνος” ((singular) whose). This interrogative pronoun may be used instead of the genitive singular of “ποιος”.

“τίνων” ((plural) whose). This interrogative pronoun is seldom used.

“πόσος, πόση, πόσο” (how much, how many). This interrogative pronoun follows the declensional pattern of adjectives ending in -ος, -η, -ο.
